

Rain barrels are an effective and easy means of conserving water. Instead of losing the water that falls on your roof to runoff, why not collect that water and put it to good use? The barrel is a water reservoir that collects water for you to use in your gardens and flowerbeds. In addition, a rain barrel decreases the pollution of our streams and rivers.